

BENJAMINA MBAKI

PROFILE

I am a hardworking and reliable student currently studying Information Technology: Systems Development NQF 5. Fast learner looking for entry-level work.

WORK EXPERIENCE

I have no work experience yet; however, I am willing to work hard and I am a fast learner. I believe that teamwork makes the dreamwork. Taking calls, Babysitting, cleaning, and organizing while helping with general household tasks are some skills I have had for quite some time. Plus, basic computer tasks.
